From: WFG Underwriting Department
Date: March 16, 2020
Bulletin No.: IN 2020-01
Subject: Marion County, Indiana Recorder's Office Closed – Effective March 16, 2020

To All WFG Agents doing business in Indiana,

WFG has been advised that the Marion County, Indiana Recorder's Office is closed to the public effective today, Monday, March 16, 2020 until further notice. We received the following notice from Chris Becker, Chief Deputy of the Marion County Recorder's Office.

“For the health and safety of all members of the community, effective Monday, March 16, the Marion County Recorder's Office will be closed to public visitors until further notice. The office will remain open to accept documents for recording by mail or through our e-recording vendors, and to assist customers by phone.

Citizens are encouraged to use online services available through the City-County website: www.indy.gov [indy.gov]. Information on searching and obtaining copies of recorded documents can be found here [indy.gov].

Documents for recording can be mailed to: Marion County Recorder, 200 E. Washington St. Room 741, Indianapolis, IN 46204 [google.com]

Information about our e-recording partners can be found here [indy.gov], please note additional fees apply.

We apologize for this disruption in service and appreciate your understanding as we take this unprecedented but necessary step.

Thank you.

Chris Becker
